

The issuer of this certificate bears sole responsibility for calibration and documentation thereof. The duplication of extracts from this certificate is prohibited. If the click torque is outside a 20 % deviation range it might be represented as »kein« (no click). Tools with a flex head are measured in the horizontal axis.